1. One day I was walk - ing
2. One day I ran A - way from home

And wan - der - ing through the Bar - ley Fields
From my Pa - pa I'm a pro - di - gal son

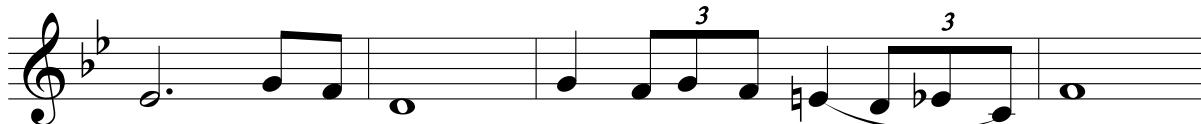

I heard a voice call - ing, call - ing call - ing me.
I spent all that he gave me I spent I spent all

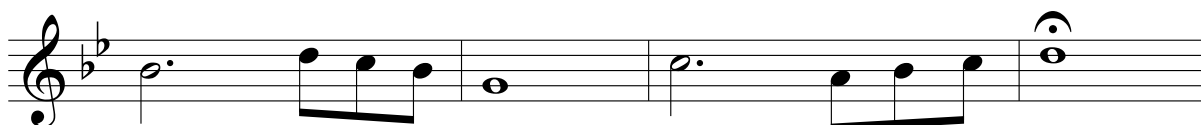

For old times I whist - led a tune.
A prodigal son I was lost in sin.

O how sweet the notes in my ears Look - ing a - round.
O what shame to my fa - ther's name Pa - pa Pa - pa

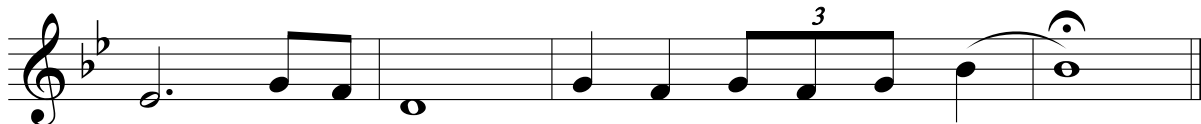

I saw no one Look - ing a - round me I saw no one
I'm com - ing home Pa - pa O Pa - pa I'm com - ing home

On - ly the twi - light Of an eve - ning glow
Where are you my son O my long lost son.

Twilight of an eve - ning glow A dy - ing sun,
Here he comes all tat - tered and torn My son was dead

A fad - ing light that dims that dims my eyes.
He lives a - gain My son, my son come home.
