

For Such a Time as This

(17 April 2020)

Dear True Lifers

“Praise the Lord for all the True Life video sermons for such a time as this.” (EH & Jannie).

This Lord’s Day (Apr 19) is the 4th Sunday we are worshipping the Lord in our homes—all this to break the COVID-19 spread in our community. We hope and pray this will be over soon, so that we can get back to worshipping the Lord together as a church to keep the communion.

Please know that before the online worship service starts at 10.30am, there will be about 13 minutes of hymns played on the piano by brother Christopher Tan. It will be good if you can start tuning in at 10.15am—after the countdown, the hymns will play. Do use this time for silent meditation and prayer to prepare yourself for the worship service.

You are encouraged to visit <http://hymnpod.com> for a good selection of hymns played and arranged by our brother Christopher. Deborah and Judith have an uplifting Easter hymn—“God My Father Reigns”—an original composition with lyrics from Joycelyn Chng.

Thank God we not only have sermons but also hymns that we can listen to online for our edification. Go to https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCj_nzmkvUV_N7heAUOdTTCg for all the sermons and hymns.

Let’s continue to remember one another in prayer.

God bless.
