

Tapau Food from True Lifers

(28 April 2020)

Dear True Lifers

A couple of our church members run restaurants. During this “stay-home-no-dining-out” period, you might want to consider ordering food from them. Let me recommend them to you (I am of course biased):

- (1) We have Japanese Singaporeans in our church—the Nakajimas (Yumi, Junji, Asei, Yamato)—whose mother (sister of Alice Han) runs a Japanese restaurant at Cuppage Plaza called Izakaya Nijumaru (<https://www.facebook.com/izakayanijumaruSg>). Yumi helps her mother in the restaurant. Their unagi don is my favourite.

- (2) Namgung Ji Young (aka Candy) is a new member of our church. Read her testimony “Blessings in Suffering” in the April 12th weekly: https://www.truelifebpc.org.sg/resources/church\_weekly/2020-04-12.xvii-28. She owns Big Mama Korean Restaurant in Tiong Bahru (<https://www.facebook.com/bigmama.sg>). Suyuk and Dakgalbi are her specialties.

In such times of crisis, we need our Lord and Saviour most of all. We also need one another. Let us continue to pray for one another and support one another. “As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.” (Gal 6:10).

Yours affectionately

Pastor Jeffrey Khoo
