

Infant Baptism

12 July 2020

The baptism of our children whom God has graciously given to us is long overdue due to the Covid-19 lockdown. Now that homes are open for visitation, I am pleased to visit your homes to conduct the sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion.

Acts 16:31 says, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” Our God is a familial God who desires the salvation of those in our household (Acts 16:15), especially our children. Jesus said, “Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.” (Matt 19:14).

At infant baptism, it is the parents who will confess faith in Jesus Christ and promise to bring up their children in the fear and nurture of the Lord and pray for their salvation.

Last Saturday, Richmond and Kezia’s toddler Hezekiah was baptised.

May the other children be baptised soon. I look forward to administering this sacrament to the remaining seven—Ethan, Leah, John, Eliezer, Hannah, Mattheo and Lisa.
