

RESUMPTION OF PHYSICAL WORSHIP (LIMITED)

17 October 2020

Praise the Lord that our application to resume physical worship services has been approved by the authorities. We will resume physical, corporate worship with effect from Reformation Sunday, October 25, 2020.

The Chinese service will resume full worship at the RELC (with livestream). The English congregation, however, being a larger body, will continue to worship online, but members will take turns to gather physically at RELC for Holy Communion so that all can have a chance to partake of the sacrament at least once a month. Members will have to register online for the services before attending. Details will be sent to members via email.

The weekly Lord's Day Chinese worship and English communion services will be held at RELC Rooms 603/604 according to the following schedule:

English Communion Service I: 9.00–10.00am

English Communion Service II: 10.15–11.15am

Chinese Worship Service: 11.30am–1.00pm
