Words by Jason Linn

1. Earthly friend-ship is all but vain, In a mir - ror can be seen:
2. We be - come fools when sin blinds us, And our view of life is blurred:
3. Who is all the world's like Mo - ses: To him God spoke face to face!

Men's hearts va - ry as their fa - ces, But their feel - ings are the same.
What is all in the great wide world. And God's Word goes in a whirl.
Who knew the Lord as He knew him, What a glo - ry by His grace!

Face to face that Day we shall meet, Ga - thered round our Fa - ther's feet,
Face to face that Day we shall meet, Ga - thered round our Fa - ther's feet,
Face to face that Day we shall meet, Ga - thered round our Fa - ther's feet.

In sin - ce - ri - ty and in truth, And our dif - ferences re - moved.
When the Lord's glo - ry we be - hold, And our doubts like mist un - fold.
When all our hopes shall be ful - filled. And the storms of life be stilled.
