

When Daylight's Fading

Spanish Air

1. When day-light's fa-ding And fast sinks the even-ing sun, In the soft
2. Deep though the midnight, Glean the eyes of thousand stars. Wide beams the 3. There's com - ing a Day When all tears shall wipe a - way, When suns shall twi - light, My life's jour-ney's run. Soon the dark night's fall - ing, moon-light To pil - grims from far! Far be-yond the blue skies a - rise, And moons ne'er shall wane. In the new heav'ns, new earth,

And the wea - ry ones come home. Can I hear my Sav - iour, There's a ci - ty bright and fair. O to live with Je - sus, O what splen-dour shall en - dure! When the Lamb that was slain

Call - ing me, wel - come?
Joy be - yond com - pare! Je - sus Lord Je - sus, E - ver be Thou Reigns for - e'er and e'er.

by my side. Je - sus, Lord Je - sus, with my soul a - bide.